More Than 50,000 Knights to March In Giant Parade

What is believed to be the biggest crowd ever gathered in Washington in the history of the city is expected here June 8 at the unveiling of the Columbus Memorial. Fully 200,000 visitors are looked for on this day. Plans for the handling of such a vast throng now are being completed.

(A month ago it was thought that no more than 100,000 would come here on this date, but reports reaching Washington indicate that there will be just double this amount. Every hotel in the city will be crowded. The big boarding houses also will be taxed to their capacity.)

It was announced yesterday by the committee on public comfort looking after the crowds on this day, that the review stands will be erected on the plaza at the Union station, facing north, so that the President and other distinguished persons at the unveiling can be seen by the visitors.

The entertainment committee is busy planning a program for the visitors. A big reception is being considered, to be held in the Pan-American Union building, at which President Taft will be one of the principal figures. There will be a fireworks display, an auto parade, private and public dinners, and many other features to which the visitors will be invited.

The main feature of the day will be the massive parade, in which fully 75,000 persons are expected to take part. It has been stated at the Knights of Columbus headquarters in this city that there will be fully 50,000 members of the order in the line of march.

Sylvester Asks $6,000 For the Protection of Columbus Day Visitors

Major Richard Sylvester has asked the Commissioners to request from Congress an appropriation of $6,000 to enable the police department to give proper protection to citizens and visitors during the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the Columbus memorial on June 3.

The various committees in charge have mapped out a program of events that will take place during the week of June 3, and the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade will assist the local divisions of the Knights of Columbus in entertaining the visitors.

A grandstand will be erected in the Union Station plaza which will accommodate 10,000 persons.

Joseph Straßburger is chairman of the committee, John L. Weaver is vice chairman, and Thomas J. Donovan is secretary. Chairman of the various sub-committees are: Cuno Rudolph, reception; John Poole, finance; E. C. Graham, chairman, and Samuel J. Prescott, vice chairman, illumination and fireworks; Isaac Gans, floral auto parade; Major R. Sylvester, public order; Granville M. Hunt, grandstands; M. D. Rosenberg, public concert, and Dr. A. D. Wilkinson, public comfort. Ralph Lee, G. F. Schmitt, James F. Shea, B. F. Saul, and Edward P. Harrington, also are members.

"UNKNOWN WOMAN" NEW NOVEL, WORK OF RESIDENT HERE

"Anne Warwick" Is Mrs. William Bleeker Newlin, Socially Prominent.

Of interest to the literary world, and especially that part of it embraced by Washington, was the publication of a new novel, "The Unknown Woman," by "Anne Warwick," who is known in Washington social circles as Mrs. William Bleeker Newlin. Mrs. Newlin, who claims this city as her home for a part of the time at least, is the daughter of Bishop Earl Cranston, one of the highest officials of the Methodist Episcopal Church who resides in this city at the Ontario.

"The Unknown Woman" is the second novel from the pen of the young authoress, and it promises to receive a warm reception among fiction readers. "The Unknown Woman" is a unique character, and in portraying her the authoress handles her subject in an interesting as well as original way. Until the very climax the reader is held in suspense.

"The Compensation" was the first novel turned out by Mrs. Newlin. Besides this and "The Unknown Woman," "Stories About Plain People," has appeared and been widely read.

Mrs. Newlin was born in Cincinnati twenty-five years ago. Her schooling began early, and was completed when she graduated from Goucher's College, Baltimore, then called the Baltimore Woman's College.

Deputy Shoots Down Negro in Tennessee

NASHVILLE, May 12.—Clyde Foster, a negro, was killed by Deputy Sheriff John Cook when he resisted arrest after having shot Robert Helton and an unknown negro at a railroad camp near here early today. Foster ambushed the negroes, and both are probably fatally wounded. After the shooting, Foster stated that nobody could take him, and made a movement toward his hip pocket while Deputy Cook fired. This is the second shooting at the camp in the past few months.

DISTRICT BOWS IN REVERENCE OF FILIAL LOVE

Mothers' Day Observed in Many Washington Churches.

Mothers' Day Association addressed an appeal to the various citizens' associations of the District. Many of the presidents of these organizations acted upon the suggestion and sent word to all their members requesting them to follow the general custom of wearing in coat lapel a white flower which has a special significance today.

Associations Respond.

Some of the citizens' association presidents wrote formal replies to Mr. Rudolph. Others contented themselves with addressing the members of their organization. Among those who wrote back to the Commissioner were the heads of the following associations: North Capitol and Eckington, Brightwood, South Washington, Randle Highlands, East Washington, Northeast Suburban, Rhode Island Avenue, North-west Suburban, Georgetown, Park View, West Washington, Garfield, Northwest Public Interest, Deanwood.

Practically all the citizens' associations which became interested in today's observance appointed committees which arranged with neighborhood pastors of churches for special services or for reference at least to "Mothers' Day" during morning or evening service. Many of the committees have written letters indorsing the Taylor bill, introduced in the House by the Ohio Congressman, providing for formal recognition by Congress of the second Sunday in May as "Mothers' Day."

The Rev. Dr. George A. Miller, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Church, preached on "Motherhood." He took his text from the thirteenth of proverbs: "Her Children Rise and Call Her Blessed."

Importance of Motherhood.

Dr. Miller dwelt upon the importance of motherhood. He said that the meaning of the word motherhood was only appreciated by the Christian nations, that a mother was not appreciated where the Gospel is not known. "A mother is a man's best friend. Often people fail to appreciate their wonderful worth until they are gone," said Dr. Miller.

At the Sunshine City Temple, 417 Pennsylvania avenue, the Rev. Zed H. Copp preached on "Mother, Home, and Heaven." He used two motion pictures to illustrate his sermon. The first picture was "The Life of the Mother of Jesus," and the last was a modern drama of a mother, entitled "The Patchwork Quilt." The Rev. Copp took his text from John 19, 25, "Son, Behold Thy Mother."

"Parent's Day" was observed at the morning services of the Second Baptist Church. The pastor, the Rev. Hinson V. Howlett, preached on the fifth commandment, "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother." He said that parents are the units of the nation. "Children should appreciate them more. The fifth commandment is the law upon which nations stand today. In countries where father and mother are not honored as they should you will find that the countries themselves are not strong and influential as where father and mother are honored above all things."

WOMEN WORKERS HOPE TO SECURE ADDITIONAL FUNDS

Churches Aid in Campaign for Home for Y. W. C. A.

Managers of the Y. W. C. A. building fund campaign hope that the scores of persons in Washington who are still considering whether or not they wish to contribute will decide tomorrow, the last day of the campaign, that they will help increase the fund. Many people have manifested interest in the campaign who have not yet actually contributed money.

The option on the site at Thirteenth and I streets, which is owned by five different persons, expires May 15. The money already subscribed is practically sufficient to buy the site, so that the money paid for the option will not be lost. The $112,000 total now subscribed includes a conditional contribution of $10,000, and while hope is entertained that this subscription will be paid anyway it is necessary that $10,000 be raised outside of this in order to comply with the letter of the conditions under which this sum was given.

In practically all churches of Washington today mention of the Y. W. C. A. fund was made in prayers and sermons. Envelopes were handed at the doors to those who attended services. These envelopes could be used for cash subscriptions or a pledge could be written on them. A joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building at 4 o'clock this afternoon in celebration of Mothers' Day. Incidentally the building fund will be mentioned.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN MEET DEATH IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

Car Struck by Locomotive on Crossing at Argyle, Minn.

WARREN, Minn., May 12.—Miss Lou Tiedt, of Argyle, Minn., aged thirty and Miss Anna Mised, of Euclid, Minn., were instantly killed in an automobile accident at Argyle today when the machine was struck by a locomotive. Miss L. E. Miseder was probably fatally injured and Victor Tiedt, the driver, was badly bruised about the body.

The automobile was being driven across the tracks of the Great Northern Railway when it was struck by the locomotive of a southbound freight train running at a rate of twenty miles an hour. All the occupants of the car were thrown several yards. Miss Lou Tiedt, sister of the chauffeur, and daughter of the most prominent merchant in Argyle, was dead when the train crew and others rushed to give assistance.

The Misses Miseder, members of one of the most prominent families in Polk county, were visiting in Argyle. It is said Tiedt attempted to cross the tracks ahead of the train and that the engine of the automobile became stalled when the train reached the crossing. Others using the train were hidden from view by trees a short distance away and that the touring party did not notice the train in time to stop, but on more speed in an attempt to cross safely.

About $5,000 for The Titanic Memorial

The sum of $100,000 will be expended on the memorial arch to be erected on some Washington avenue to the memory of the Titanic victims. It is on the sum of $100,000 which the officials of the Woman's Titanic Memorial have set their hearts and the utmost confidence is expressed that this figure will be attained.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond, secretary of the Titanic memorial committee, and other officers are adhering to their decision not to announce from time to time how much has been subscribed to date, but it is learned unofficially that about $5,000 has been given so far by the women of the country.

The State committees will soon be appointed with a State chairman at the head of each. These State committees will canvass their territory irrespective of the activity of committees appointed by various women's clubs, women's labor unions and so forth.

To the membership of the committee of one hundred are added the names of Mrs. E. T. Stetson, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, of New York.

PROMINENT MEN TO ATTEND FUNERAL OF J. J. HEMPHILL

Vice President Sherman to Be Pallbearer of Former Congressman.

Funeral ceremonies, attended by dignitaries of the nation, and by men prominent in the affairs of the District, are to be held for John J. Hemphill, former Congressman and attorney of Washington, at the family residence, 208 Bancroft place, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Honorary pallbearers will be Vice President Sherman, Justice McKenna, of the United States Supreme Court; William Corporation Hill, S. C. Neale, Arthur Peter, Charles C. Glover, L. Kemp Duval, and J. J. Darlington.

The services will be under the direction of the Rev. Charles Wood, of the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant. Floral tributes from persons in all walks of life have been received, among them being those from Congressmen, diplomats and associates in business and professional life.

Mr. Hemphill, who died yesterday morning at his home, of heart disease, was a member of Congress from South Carolina for ten years, during much of which time he was chairman of the District Committee of the House, and as such was in close touch with affairs here.

After the services at the house the body will be taken to Oak Hill Cemetery, where interment will be in the family plot.

WILLIAM A. LINTON.
Arrangements for funeral ceremonies for William A. Linton, lifelong resident of Washington, who died yesterday afternoon, were being made today. Services will be held at the family home, 322 Fourth street northeast, probably tomorrow afternoon. It is stated that interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Linton, who was sixty-six years old and a native of Washington, died of paralysis at his home. Besides his widow, Mrs. Sallie Chichester Linton, he is survived by three children, William A. Linton, and Miss Julia and Miss Evelyn Linton.

Protests Against Provisions of Law

LISBON, May 12.—Because of the law separating church and State by which all property of religious congregations goes to the State, protests are coming in from the British, German, French and Spanish legations from relatives of various foreigners who have left legacies to religious bodies.

As these legacies were left for religious purposes, there is objection to the State confiscating the funds, which it is estimated amount to near $5,000,000.

D.J. Kaufman Selling More Serges Than Any Other Two Houses in the District

Just Received Second Big Shipment of 450 of Our Famous $18 Honest True Blue Serge Suits

NO SUIT like a serge and no serge like a D. J. Kaufman Honest True Blue Serge at $13.75. The truth of this statement can be attested by one thousand Washington men who wore them last season, and who will come back for another one this season. This is big selling of just one kind of suit—and it's the big selling that makes such a small price possible—for this serge if bought in the usual quantities would have to sell for $18. The workmanship and trimming are of unusual quality.
